Participant age must not cross 25 years as of 4th April, 2020.

Registration for Round 1 of the 'Idea Pitching Competition' i-Pitch 2020 is free.

The shortlisted teams will have to pay INR 1000 for being allowed to present their idea to the Jury, which will consist of experts from the industry.

Registration Rule

The registrations will be done as teams. Participants can compete in a team of 1-4 members. Each team should consist of 1-4 members, with one member as the Team Leader.

There can be multiple teams from the same college/university.

A participant cannot be a member of more than one team. In case of such a discrepancy, both the teams will be disqualified.

Ideas submitted as part of a team must represent the original work of the team members.

Teams must answer each question in the questionnaire in detail in order to be considered for evaluation.

Regulations

Entries submitted after the deadline will not be considered. Any details submitted cannot be changed post submission.

The team members are required to submit a digital copy of the student ID card for identification. The E-Cell, NLSIU may ask for a government approved identification proof if required.

The e-mail id and phone number used for registration will be used as the medium of contact throughout the competition. Teams must comply with the judging criteria, and the final decision of the Judges.

Rights to all the final decisions related to the competition remains with E-Cell, NLSIU.

Any misconduct during the course of the competition would lead to disqualification of the team.

Kindly adhere to the rules and regulations mentioned above. If any of the above rules are violated, the submission will be deemed null and void and subsequently disqualified. Teams can be asked to provide proof for the above at any time during the competition cycle and in the eventuality of any wrong detail/information, the registration can be disqualified. E-Cell, NLSIU retains all rights for disqualification of registrations.
